TMX Equities Trading Notice

TMX Equities Postpones Dynamic OPR Launch

Please be advised that the launch of the Dynamic OPR Reprice enhancement, originally scheduled for September 23, 2019 as outlined in Equities Trading Notice 2019-029, will be postponed until further notice. This postponement will allow additional time for solution design and client consultation to ensure that the optimal solution is introduced. A subsequent notice will be sent when a new launch date is available.

For more information regarding this notice, please contact the Account Management Team.
